SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships are awarded based on various prerequisites, including but not limited to:

- academic performance,
- financial need,
- an original essay,
- a pastoral recommendation,
- and other requirements that vary by scholarship

Scholarships are awarded in the spring for the subsequent fall and spring semesters. The full amount of the scholarship award for the student will be sent directly to the student's educational institution in the fall for disbursement over the fall and spring semesters. The Methodist Foundation requests that the award be disbursed equally over the fall and spring semester. Institutions may or may not honor this request. Students must reapply for scholarships annually.

Maximum Awards

A student may receive a maximum of four(4) scholarship awards for undergraduate and graduate studies. An approved ministerial candidate may receive four(4) scholarships for a Master of Divinity degree.

The Foundation receives generous scholarship support from community members, church organizations, and other nonprofit organizations through donations, gifts, and bequests. Each contribution plays a vital role in helping students build a successful future.
